Red Flag Warnings are issued during times of high fire danger (low relative humidity, winds, temperature and predicted fire behavior under these conditions). No activation of the permit may occur on days identified as such. Permits may also be suspended during times of dangerous conditions not included in the red flag warning.

Upon issuance of a permit, the Fire Department may specify any special fire control conditions for the safety of the residences and surrounding properties:

Conditions:

_____

The fire control permit is a legal document that conditionally authorizes a person to burn at a time, place and methods specified on the permit. The issuing Fire Department and the employee(s) or agents thereof, do not assume any responsibility for any damage to the person or property of the permittee, or the person or property of any third person burning or assisting in the burning. The person holding the burn permit assumes the risks associated with a burn and is not relieved of any liability for injuries to persons or damage to property resulting from the burn. The person conducting the burn shall have knowledge of safe burning conditions, including consideration of and the availability of specific limitations concerning temperature, humidity, snow cover, wind conditions, fuel type, moisture content, slope, and the regulations established by this permit program.
